Dear Parishioners,

Last weekend, the parish celebration of my Golden Jubilee of Ordination was more than a wonderful event. I was overwhelmed by the response, and I shall always treasure the memory of last weekend. I thank you all, not only for you cards and letters, but also for your very kind gifts, but for more than anything, I thank you for your friendship and prayers. All of this means so much to me, but, of course, it is a mere reflection of the great spirit in St Brigid's Parish. I hope, that in the last sixteen years, I have managed, with God's grace, to be of some useful service to you. Thank-you for everything.

Although I am retiring as Parish Priest of St Brigid's, the Bishop has asked that I remain until a new Parish Priest is appointed. When exactly that will be I do not know, but I expect to be here for the next few weeks. With renewed thanks, and asking God to best you all,

Yours sincerely,

Fr Eddie O'Donnell.
