Wednesday 29th June Feast of STs Peter and Paul

Peter recovered this trust when Jesus said to him three times: "Feed my sheep" (Jn 21:15-17). Peter thrice confessed his love for Jesus, thus making up for his threefold denial of Christ during the Passion.

Peter still regrets the disappointment which he caused the Lord on the night of his betrayal. Now that the Lord asks him: "Do you love me?" Peter does not trust himself and his own strength, but instead entrusts himself to Jesus and his mercy: "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you" (Jn 21:17). Precisely at this moment, fear, insecurity, and cowardice dissipate. Peter experienced how God's fidelity is always greater than our acts of infidelity, stronger than our denials.

- Pope Francis Homily

Reflection: What fears, insecurities, and cowardice toward the Lord do you take to prayer? trust in God's fidelity. Tell him, Lord you know everything; you know that I love you. Have confidence in his love for you. Trust in his mercy.
